Classes

Creative Movement (Preschool, Pre K) assists the very young dancer in identifying basic forms of movement through imaginative games, songs, music and rhythmical patterns.

Pre-Ballet is an introduction to ballet terminology and concepts such as spatial awareness, posture, musicality, and class etiquette.

Beginning Ballet class will build on the foundation of basic positions of Classical Ballet and help the student develop strength, grace, flexibility, focus and discipline.

Intermediate Ballet students begin training in Pre-Pointe, Pointe, and Pas de Deux. More complex and demanding ballet combinations are introduced.

Advanced Ballet is for the accomplished and serious ballet student and will prepare the student for a professional career or University.

Teen/Adult Beginning and Intermediate classes are also offered.

The Ballet Academy at Studio 321 is directed by David and Sarah Goud, former Principal and Soloist dancers with the Louisville Ballet, award winning Guest Artists, and nationally known Dance Educators. They work with our other qualified teachers to provide an excellence in dance training that is unmatched in the Tri-State Area. Both the professionally minded and the recreational student will know the joy of dance and build a strong classical ballet foundation. We believe in fostering complete artists and working with families to create lifelong meaningful memories.
